

Library Sneak Peek
Wednesday, Feb. 20
at 10 AM and 5:30 PM

The Baraboo Public Library will unveil conceptual drawings for the building expansion and remodel project in two public "Sneak Peek" sessions at the library. The preliminary plans, developed by Ann Dilcher, a LEED accredited architect with Quinn Evans Architects, and Carter Arndt, project architect with MSA Professional Services, will give the public an idea of the library expansion designs being considered by decision makers. We invite the public to come in, take a look at the drawings, and give their opinions about how they think features of these preliminary plans will work.
