

Special Programs!

Fairytale Tea Party

Saturday, January 19

Parties at 9:30 am and 11 am

Parents, grandparents, and children ages 3-11 are invited. Costumes are encouraged. Enjoy classical music, decorate your own cupcake, and make a craft. Tickets are REQUIRED for each event and must be picked up in advance at the library starting Saturday, Dec. 1. Seating is limited.

Scales, Scutes and Skins

Saturday, February 16 @ 10 am

Do you know the difference between a reptile and an amphibian? An Upham Woods Naturalist will lead a live animal show and activities to compare reptile and amphibian adaptations. Learn the important roles these animals play in the environment and ways you can protect Wisconsin's diverse reptile and amphibian populations.

Celebrate Dr. Seuss's Birthday

Saturday, March 2 @ 10 am

Families and children ages 3-11 are invited. Celebrate Dr. Seuss's birthday with crafts, activities, and refreshments.

Bats Alive @ Ochsner Zoo

Saturday, April 20 @ 10 am

Families are invited. If you were a bat, how would you live? How would you see and hear? What would you eat? Through games and crafts, discover lots of interesting things about life as a bat in this family event at the zoo. Bat or Batman/Batgirl costumes encouraged. This program is co-sponsored with the Baraboo Parks, Recreation & Forestry Department.
