

Baraboo Reads - *Sitting Pretty
Saturday, August 12, 10 AM-noon
UW-Platteville Baraboo Sauk County, Bluffview Café
1006 Connie Rd.

Baraboo Reads brings our community together each year to read a book that has the chance to change the way we think about and interact with each other to foster openness and inclusivity. This year's book, Sitting Pretty: The View From My Ordinary Resilient Disabled Body by Rebekah Taussig allows our community to explore the theme of disabilities.

We will have a book discussion followed by a panel discussion/Q&A with community members who are experts on issues relating to disability, either through their personal or professional experience, or both. Pick up a free copy of the book in advance of the event at the library!

Multigenerational Book Club - Disabilities/Ableism
Thursday, August 24, 6-7 PM
Story Time Room at the library

We are inviting readers of all ages to discuss books and topics in order to bring our community together and to share ideas. The library will provide a list of selected fiction and non-fiction titles for all age groups. Read the books together as a family, or on your own, and then we will come together for an all-ages discussion.

August's topic is disabilities, in conjunction with Baraboo Reads. Please see a list of suggested books and register in advance on the library website: <https://www.csmpl.org/multigenerational-book-club-0>
